

DISTRICT COURT OF THE U.S.
VIRGIN ISLANDS
BANKRUPTCY DIVISION

The U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the U.S. Virgin Islands is accepting applications for a temporary law clerk position. The position will be filled as soon as possible and is currently funded through September 30, 2006. Applicants must be a law school graduate. An annualized salary of $46,189, health benefits, life insurance, and other fringe benefits are included with the position. Actual compensation will depend upon the qualifications of the candidate. The successful candidate's primary duty will be to update and draft revisions to the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Procedures for the U.S. Virgin Islands. Specific details of the temporary appointment will be discussed with the applicant during the interview process. All applications must include the following: 1) a cover letter which specifically addresses why the applicant is interested in the local rules project cited above; 2) a resume of professional experience; 3) a legal writing sample; and, 4) a copy of the applicant's law school transcript. Any application package that does not include all four of the items listed will not be considered. E-mail application packages to: michael\_mcgrath@pawb.uscourts.gov or fax to: 412-355-2508. Do not call the court for information. Walk-in interviews will not be granted, and hand-deliveries of applications will not be accepted. This information is VOID after March 10, 2006.